

Louise (Gallaway) Kish (MHS '59) has devoted her life to the nursing profession. She was instrumental in beginning the nursing programs at both Owens Community College and Lourdes University. Dr. Gallaway's degrees include: bachelor's degree in nursing, master's degree in nursing, doctoral degree in educational administration, MBA in healthcare administration. She presently owns and operates Visiting Angels of Dearborn Heights, Michigan.

Prior to starting her own business, Dr. Gallaway was a quality assurance manager for Detroit Central City Community Mental Health, Inc. and has been a staff nurse at several hospitals. She has worked as an evaluator of nursing care services and served as a member of the adjunct faculty at University of Phoenix, Madonna University, and Southern Illinois University. She held faculty positions at Owens Community College, Lourdes University and Franklin University. She also worked as a staff nurse at several hospitals and facilities, including Toledo State Hospital, Toledo Hospital, Mt. Carmel Hospital and Ohio State University Hospitals.

Dr. Gallaway is a researcher and published author who volunteers at service clubs, churches, and long term care facilities, teaching how to keep the elderly population safe from falls and other common injuries. She is married to John P. Kish, Jr. and they live in Dearborn Heights, Michigan.