

Richard W. Kazmaier - Class of 1948

Dick Kazmaier has never forgotten his hometown of Maumee, Ohio. On September 21, 2007, Dick donated his 1951 Heisman Trophy to Maumee High School. He established the Richard Kazmaier Scholarship Fund at Maumee High School nearly 20 years ago. To date, more than $175,000 has been awarded to college-bound scholar athletes. Dick was named the 1951 Time Magazine Man of the Year, holds degrees from Princeton University and Harvard Business School, was President Reagan's choice as National Chairman of the President's Council on Physical Fitness, is a civic leader, community volunteer, and the proud father of six daughters.
